What Is A Homemaker?

The Green County Kentucky Extension Homemaker Organization is comprised of a diverse group of individuals with many different ages, interests, and talents in this ever-changing world. We are constantly striving to acquire more efficient and effective skills through methods of researched based information from the University of Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service & Kentucky State University. As dedicated volunteers, we network with local agencies and give tirelessly of ourselves to enrich their lives and the lives of our families and communities. We Share and We Care.

KENTUCKY HOMEMAKER CREED

I believe in the home as an inspiring and happy center of family life -- comfortable and attractive -- a place for relaxation and work where pleasures and responsibilities are shared.

I believe in the home, its contribution to community life which reflects the development of the homemaker and the family.

I believe in the homemaker -- alert, diligent, in search of better ways of doing ordinary things for the welfare and happiness of the family.

I believe in the homemaker as a community leader responsible for passing on to others mastered skills and knowledge.

I believe in the fellowship that comes through the homemakers' organization -- the exchange of ideas and the joy of knowledge shared with others thus broadening our lives and lifting household tasks above the commonplace.

For these opportunities I am grateful. I am also thankful for the courage of yesterday, the hope of tomorrow and a growing consciousness of God's love always.

Section 6. The Treasurer shall receive all funds belonging to the club and pay them out on order of the club. She shall make a treasurer's report at all regular meetings and dues must be submitted to the county treasurer by October 1.

Section 7. The Executive Committee will help to arrange for meetings and demonstrations and cooperate with the County Extension Agent in her work. The president or each local club shall submit the recommendations of her committee and her club to the county advisory council.

Section 8. Each club shall have two voting delegates for county business: The President and a delegate appointed by the club. All club members shall have the privilege of making motions and entering into debate at county meetings and have voting privileges.

Section 9. The order of business at club meetings shall be as follows, or may be arranged as feasible.

- A. Call to order by President
- B. Roll Call
- C. Program
- D. Reading of minutes of the previous meeting
- E. Treasure's Report
- F. Committees' Chairs/Reports
- G. County Extension Agent's report and recommendations
- H. Unfinished Business
- I. New Business
- J. Adjournment

Section 10. Mailbox membership shall be open to anyone not desiring to be in a club. They will receive through the mail the same material as club members.

- A. Dues for mailbox members shall be the same as club members.
- B. Mailbox members may attend any homemaker function as a non-voting member.
- C. Mailbox members are not eligible to be on the advisory council.

Article X – County Meetings

County meetings shall be determined by the Advisory Council. Other meetings may be held upon the call of the president or a written request of ten (10) members. All members shall be notified of the time and place of all county meetings at least five days before the day of meeting. The voting delegates from each club present shall constitute a quorum.

Article XI – Amendments

The constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any annual meeting or called meeting of the association, provided notices of such meeting and of the proposed amendments have been given to all members at least five days prior to the time of such meeting.

Article XII- Dissolution

In case of the dissolution of the organization, after providing for the debts and obligations of the organization, the remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

COLLECT

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought,
in word, in deed,

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking,
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene, and gentle.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great, common human heart of us all,

And, oh Lord, God, let us forget not to be kind.

The Collect was written by Mary Stewart of Longmont, Colorado, in 1904 as a personal prayer and without any organization in mind. The prayer was published under the title, A Collect for Club Women, because Mary felt that "women working together with wide interests for large ends was a new thing under the sun and that perhaps they had a need for a special petition and meditation of their own." The Collect has found its way around the world wherever English-speaking women work together.
